MARITIME MISCELLANY.

BOSTON, Dec 21—Steam trawler Ripple, from South China, was hit by an unexploded bomb while steaming in South China at 3:30 A.M. 10th, making indentation in bow; the trawler started to leak, and it was necessary to pump it in operation to prevent water from flooding. The hole made the vessel turn over and sink.

Sohn Salvage (Fr), from Antwerp, for salvage losses, has been "hired."

EDINBURGH, Dec 21—The Court of Sessions to-day awarded the Standard Oil Co. £77,000 in costs against the Glen Line, the shipping corporation which has been engaged in oil and other products shipped on Sir Glen Gordon, from New York for China, which sank during the voyage in July, 1921, a month ago. The oil company asserted that the steamer's master had damaged two water ballast tanks, altering the ship's equilibrium, so that when the helm made the vessel turn over and sink.

GALVESTON, Tex., Dec 17—Str France Maru (Br) had a fire in coal bunkers yesterday; part of the coal had been lighted to extinguish the flames.

HALIFAX, NS, Dec 21—Str West Hardaway (before reported) was taken in tow to day 45 miles east of Halifax by Shipping Board tug. Captain H. J. Duffell, Jr. for Philadelphia, and will tow her to this port. Cutler Senee is expected to reach the dock Saturday to-morrow. The West Hardaway will reach this port probably about Tuesday.

LONDON, Dec 21—Str Palma (Br), from Liverpool, with 100 tons of coal, hit by an unexploded bomb while en route to South Africa, was sunk in the Indian Ocean at 3:30 A.M. 10th, making indentation in bow; the trawler started to leak, and it was necessary to pump it in operation to prevent water from flooding. The hole made the vessel turn over and sink.
